Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claim 1 – 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Eyal et al. (US Patent App. Pub. No. 2004/0177096 A1, filed: January 24, 2000).

Regarding Claim 1, Eyal discloses a method for providing to a user media suggestions based on lists associating media segment references using one or more general purpose data processors (Page 5, [0062], lines 1 – 5, Eyal), comprising:

retrieving said lists (Page 4, [0036], lines 2 – 7, Eyal<sup>1</sup>) and parsing their media segment references into searchable records comprising text descriptors of corresponding media segments (Page 10 and 11, [0127] and [0137], lines 6 – 8 and 6 – 14; respectively, Eyal<sup>2</sup>), storing said records into memory available to said processor in combination with any previously stored records (Fig. 6, item 470, Page 12, [0152], lines 4 – 6, Eyal), receiving a user request comprising text descriptors and specification of an output text descriptor type (Page 11 and 14, [0145] and [0177], lines 1 – 3 and 4 – 6; respectively, Eyal), searching said stored lists and retrieving lists comprising one or more records comprising one or more text descriptors matching said user input text descriptors (Page 11, [0145], lines 3 – 5, Eyal<sup>3</sup>), compiling a list of unique text descriptors of the output type that are present in said retrieved lists (Page 11, [0145], lines 6 – 14, Eyal), scoring each of said unique text descriptors of the output type according to the number of said retrieved lists it appears in (Page 14, [0178], lines 1 – 7, Eyal), and providing to said user a list of top-scoring text descriptors of said unique text descriptors (Page 21, [0269], lines 4 – 8 and 14 – 16, Eyal<sup>4</sup>).

<sup>4</sup> Eyal's disclosure teaches methods for scoring text descriptors (related to media information) including rating them from best to worst (Page 21, [0269], lines 4 – 8, Eyal). Eyal further discloses that the rating information will be provided to other users (Page 21, [0260], lines 14 – 16, Eyal). This implies that "best to worst" scores will be displayed to users. Examiner interprets that "best to worst" scores implies that top scores and lowest scores will be displayed to users.

Regarding Claim 9, Eyal discloses a data processing system for providing to a user media suggestions based on lists associating media segment references (Page 5, [0062], lines 1 – 5, Eyal), comprising:

- (a) a general purpose data processor of known type for processing data (Page 6, [0077], lines 5 – 7, Eyal);
- (b) data storage means for storing data on a storage medium (Fig. 4, item 247, Page 8, [0104], lines 9 – 10, Eyal);
- (c) means for retrieving said lists associating media segments (Page 4, [0036], lines 2 – 7, Eyal<sup>5</sup>) and parsing them into searchable records comprising text descriptors of corresponding media segments and storing said records into said data storage with any previously stored records (Page 10 and 11, [0127] and [0137], lines 6 – 8 and 6 – 14; respectively, Eyal<sup>6</sup>);
- (d) means for receiving a user request comprising text descriptors and specification of an output text descriptor type (Page 11 and 14, [0145] and [0177], lines 1 – 3 and 4 – 6; respectively, Eyal);
- (e) means for searching said stored lists and retrieving lists comprising one or more records comprising one or more text descriptors matching said user input text descriptors (Page 11, [0145], lines 3 – 5, Eyal<sup>7</sup>);

- (f) means for compiling a list of unique text descriptors of the output type that are present in said retrieved lists (Page 11, [0145], lines 6 – 14, Eyal);
- (g) means for scoring each of said unique text descriptors of the output type according to the number of said retrieved lists it appears in (Page 14, [0178], lines 1 – 7, Eyal);
- (h) means for providing to said user a list of top-scoring text descriptors of said unique text descriptors (Page 21, [0269], lines 4 – 8 and 14 – 16, Eyal<sup>8</sup>).

Regarding Claim 2 and 10, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein said lists associating media segment references are retrieved through a data network (Page 1, [0009], lines 7 – 8, Eyal).

Regarding Claim 3 and 11, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein said lists associating media segment references are HTML pages retrieved through a TCP/IP network (Page 6 and 12, [0076] and [0156], lines 6 – 9 and 7 – 8, Eyal).

Regarding Claim 4 and 12, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein said retrieval, parsing and storage of said lists associating media segment references is automatically performed as new lists become available (Page 2, [0015], lines 14 – 19, Eyal).

<sup>8</sup> Eyal's disclosure teaches methods for scoring text descriptors (related to media information) including rating them from best to worst (Page 21, [0269], lines 4 – 8, Eyal). Eyal further discloses that the rating information will be provided to other users (Page 21, [0260], lines 14 – 16, Eyal). This implies that "best to worst" scores will be displayed to users. Examiner interprets that "best to worst" scores implies that top scores and lowest scores will be displayed to users.

Regarding Claim 5 and 13, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein the locations of said lists associating media segment references is stored in a master list (Fig. 20, item 2075, Page 19, [0253], lines 1 – 5, Eyal).

Regarding Claim 6 and 14, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein the scores of said unique text descriptors of the output type is modified by adding the number of unique locations of said master list on which said unique text descriptor has been found, multiplied by a weighting factor (Page 17, [0217], lines 5 – 11, Eyal<sup>9</sup>).

Regarding Claim 7 and 15, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein said user requests are the descriptors of media segments just purchased or served to a user, sent automatically as a consequence of said purchasing or serving (Fig.11, items 982 and 984, Eyal).

Regarding Claim 8 and 16, Eyal discloses a data processing system wherein media segments corresponding to said top-scoring text descriptors are automatically made available to a user (Page 21, [0269], lines 4 – 16, Eyal<sup>10</sup>).

<sup>10</sup> According to Eyal's disclosure, the rating information will be displayed to the user (Page 21, [0269], lines 14 – 16, Eyal). Examiner interprets that this rating information will include top-scoring information also. In addition, Examiner interprets this procedure to be automatically, not only because manual

Response to Arguments

1. In response to applicant's argument that the references fail to show certain features of applicant's invention, it is noted that the features upon which applicant relies (i.e., "advantage of lists associating media references with each other", "to find media related to search criteria", "compiling a database of lists...", "...information implicit in associating lists..", "...the ability to find related media..." ) are not recited in the rejected claim(s). Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993).

USPTO personnel are to give claims their broadest reasonable interpretation in light of the supporting disclosure. In re Morris, 127 F.3d 1048, 1054-55, 44 USPQ2d 1023, 1027-28 (Fed. Cir. 1997). Limitations appearing in the specification but not recited in the claim should not be read into the claim. E-Pass Techs., Inc. v. 3Com Corp., 343 F.3d 1364, 1369, 67 USPQ2d 1947, 1950 (Fed. Cir. 2003) (claims must be interpreted "in view of the specification" without importing limitations from the specification into the claims unnecessarily). In re Prater, 415 F.2d 1393, 1404-05, 162 USPQ 541, 550-551 (CCPA 1969). See also In re Zletz, 893 F.2d 319, 321-22, 13 USPQ2d 1320, 1322 (Fed. Cir. 1989) ("During patent examination the pending claims must be interpreted as broadly as their terms reasonably allow.... The reason is simply that during patent prosecution when claims can be amended, ambiguities should be recognized, scope and breadth of language explored, and clarification imposed.... An essential purpose of patent examination is to fashion claims that are precise, clear, correct, and unambiguous. Only in this way can uncertainties of claim scope be removed, as much as possible, during the administrative process.").

Conclusion

1. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
2. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
